INTRODUCTION

Every position within an organization has a unique culture which may or may not be similar to the overall organizational culture. The TTI Success Insights Job Energizing People Profile is designed to provide an overview of both the motivators for the job and the organizational culture. This will allow an organization to determine the type of individual that would be most successful in a given position. When incumbents share these motivations, job satisfaction, performance and retention increase dramatically.

As you read through this report, remember to think of the job, not the person!

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

Read the following suggested interview questions as they relate to the rewards/culture environment of the job. Modify the questions to be more job-specific and assure that all candidates are asked the same questions.

1. THEORETICAL

- Which is more important, action or knowledge?
- Would you consider yourself to be an expert in something? What is it? How did you go about gaining the knowledge?
- Tell me what you especially like or enjoy about learning things. What topics or subjects do you enjoy?
- How comfortable are you in taking the time, energy and effort required to master a subject or topic you currently know very little about? How about one in which you have very little interest?

2. TRADITIONAL/REGULATORY

- Is there an absolute right and absolute wrong? How do you decide what is right and what is wrong?
- Tell me about "rules." Give me an example of a rule that you follow relative to managing or leading others. Where did you learn that rule? How flexible is it?
- Have there been situations in your work experience when you were absolutely convinced that your rules or standards were superior to your employers? If so, why were they better? Were you able to convince your employees that yours were better?
- Do you sometimes feel that things would be easier and better if there were fewer rules and procedures? Please elaborate.

3. SOCIAL

- Is there such a thing as "too much" service to others? Explain your answer to me, please.
- Is there ever a point when employees should stand up and tell their manager that they are being mistreated? Give me an example of a circumstance where that might be the case.
- Tell me how you would service an account that kept having problems with your product and kept coming back, yet showed no promise of future business.
- What would you do if an employee was missing an undue amount of time to a family crisis? How would you handle it? At what point would you take corrective action? What would that action be?
